Comments from Participants

"We came to Retrouvaille thinking nothing would work, but it was the first time we really faced our problem as a couple and began to work on our marriage together. We have been given another chance, as well as, a deeper and clearer insight into human love."

"Retrouvaille hasn't eliminated our problems or concerns, but has given us the tools to work with. It has given us a better understanding of each other and the maturity to talk things out instead of just fighting."

"Just discovering how others had shared our road of pain and made it back gave us courage not to give up."

"Our weekend provided us the time and direction to talk about the feelings we were burying and began to heal some hurts."

"I attended Retrouvaille hoping my spouse would see the light and stop being such a burden. She saw the light, but I was blinded by it. Retrouvaille has illuminated our marriage."

What will it Cost?

No couple is ever denied the chance to heal and renew their marriage because they face financial difficulties. This concern should not influence your decision to attend Retrouvaille.

On the weekend, you will be asked to make an anonymous donation to help lighten our expenses. This one donation covers the expenses of the weekend and the follow-up sessions.

A small non-refundable fee is requested when you register for the program to confirm your food and lodging.

... A Lifeline

What is Retrouvaille?

Retrouvaille (ret'ro-vi with a long i) means "rediscovery". The RETROUVAILLE program offers you the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse and a loving relationship in your marriage.

This program is designed to help heal, and renew couples who are drifting, or have drifted apart.

RETROUVAILLE is Catholic in origin and open to all couples. No attempt is made to convert.

RETROUVAILLE consists of one weekend, plus six follow-up sessions over approximately three months.

RETROUVAILLE is NOT a spiritual retreat, sensitivity group, seminar or social gathering.

Who should attend Retrouvaille?

Couples who have experienced a breakdown in communication.

Couples whose marriage has become unloving and uncaring, or whose relationship has grown cold and distant.

Couples who are thinking of separation or divorce, or who are separated, but want to try again.

Couples who want to rediscover their loving relationship, but are unable to do so on their own.

Retrouvaille is NOT recommended for couples living in common law.

What Happens in a Retrouvaille Program?

During the Weekend phase, the series of in-depth presentations are given by a team of three couples, and a priest.

RETROUVAILLE presents techniques of communication that enable a couple to take a good look at most areas of their responsibility.

RETROUVAILLE focuses on key problem areas in marital relationships.

RETROUVAILLE provides ways for couples to place and keep their individual, marital, and spiritual needs in balance. It gives you the opportunity to examine your lives together in a new and positive way.

NOTE: You will NOT be asked to share your problems with anyone else. However, you will be encouraged to put the past behind you and start 'rediscovering' one another.

Retrouvaille

The weekend is only the first phase of the Retrouvaille Program. Follow-up (Post) sessions have been designed to continue the marriage renewal begun on the weekend. These sessions review earlier concepts in greater depth, present new ones, and help you apply these concepts to your own marriage.

How to Obtain More Information

Details about the program, including cost, vary from location to location. Contact the Retrouvaille community closest to you or call 800-470-2230 in the United States. All contacts are held in the strictest confidence.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
